Pat Robertson and Sheila Walsh introduced Dale Hurt who reported on home schooling. Home schooling is appealing to parents who do not agree with the "New Morality" and desire to have better control on the education processes for their children. The changing morality was discussed along with recent challenges against the home schooling movement. An opposing point of view was presented by Samuel Sava, Executive Director of The National Association of Elementary Principals. His contention was that home schooled children are not properly "socialized". Parents that home school explained that this was their very reason for home schooling. Dr. Raymond Moore, author of "Home School Burnout" said that classroom kids love their peers more than their own parents and that most home schooled kids have a better education than other children, respect their parents more and mature better adjusted as adults. Viewers were invited to call a 900 number to express their views on home schooling.

Pat Robertson and Sheila Walsh host Janet Boyd who reported that President Bush has demanded a "Revolution In Education In America". English, Math, History, Science and Geography are to have higher standards. New finances are to be released. New standards will be set for the present teaching force and throughout the industry with better job training. Community involvement will be stressed with the initial burden of implementation to rest with State Governments. The states are to make sure State Education Standards are meeting the new National Standards. Viewers were told that much more reform is needed and they were challenged to become involved.

	Dr Donald Whitaker introduced Dr. Klaus Sietrich Runow, a German physician from the Institute For Environmental Medicine. Dr. Runow shared information regarding his specialties and spoke specifically about the high grade of pollution in Germany and its results on the population in terms of allergies. Dr. Runow became involved in environmental medicine to obtain an alternative treatment to Cortisone and other medications that caused immune deficiency in his patients. He attributes the rate of environmental pollution world-wide to the high percentage of chronically ill people. Viewers were informed that it will take a world-wide effort of education and funding resulting in better health care to reverse the present trends in treatment.
Drug/Alcohol Abuse	THE 700 CLUB #620-91	59:30	23:00	REC	PA/O	06-20-91 3:00P
	Pat Robertson presented Linda Freeman who reported that the "King of Cocaine" has surrendered to Columbian authorities. She explained the legal ramifications announced by the Columbian Government and what they mean to Americans. The "Cocaine King" was supplying 80% of America's cocaine. Americans spend 40 to 50 billion dollars on illegal drugs per year and 45 billion dollars fighting crime. Guest, Paul Sherman, told viewers about this former alcohol problem. His family looked great and he had a great job but alcohol was affecting his job and home in subtle ways. Stating that alcohol is America's #1 problem, Paul described the many ramifications of alcoholism in the work place and what employers are doing to help their employees with substance abuse problems. He said that 18% of top executives state that they have an alcohol problem. Also presented was Bernie Wrezinski who spoke about his own alcohol and drug abuse problems. Described as a "walking party", Bernie became addicted

	Pat Robertson interviewed Richard Ferrell who told viewers about his life as a drug abuser. Born with cerebral palsy, he accomplished much in his life trying to please his violent tempered father. His feelings of acceptance began to come from more and more bizarre behavior and taking drugs. Finding his father dead, he started using heroin and his attitude worsened. The turning point is his life came when he attended a church service and committed his life to Jesus Christ. Richard encouraged viewers who were drug abusers to reach out for help and re-habilitation. Especially recommended was a Christian Rehabilitation program.

	Dave Gyuresor and Sheila Walsh introduced Mark Dyer who told viewers about his life experiences leading to drug abuse. Mark explained that from the age of 11, he lived in various foster care facilities and was a victim of both physical and sexual abuse in some of them. This led to a personality based on rage, rebellion and revenge. He wanted to hurt and shock people and turned to homosexuality. Returned to his natural mother he married at the age of 17 and joined the Armed Forces where his drug abuse intensified. Mark said that through a friend he found out what true

	Marion Williams related her life experiences growing up in a family where alcohol was abused, resulting in a divorce and great bitterness in her life. Host, Sonny Arguinzoni, discussed the factors in Marion's life that led her to follow the pattern of drug and alcohol abuse. After a failed marriage of her own, she finally decided to seek help and found it in a relationship with Jesus Christ. Experiencing forgiveness, she was able to forgive others. She now ministers to others that are into chemical abuse and encouraged any viewer out of control on drugs or alcohol to seek help for emotional and spritual needs in support groups that feature rehabilitation from drugs and alcohol.

	Denise Rasiki was a guest of Pat Robertson and told viewers the factors leading to drug abuse in her life. As a young adult in the "60's", she experimented with drugs and "free" sex while involved in the rock music scene. While in the first stages of drug abuse she thought it helped the purpose of life but in the last stages, her life became a nightmare. The loss of custody of her only child became a key to her decision to change her life. She told viewers about her experience in a Christian drug-rehabilitation center and of her decision to give her life to Jesus Christ. She attributed this factor and her on-going relationship with

	Pat Robertson and Sheila Walsh introduced a segment dealing with drug abuse. Guests, Tim and Stephanie Moore told viewers of their addiction to having a "fun oriented lifestyle" leading them into a life of drug abuse. The need for finances resulted in their lying and cheating in their business. Tom and Stephanie said the change in their lives came about when each separately decided to give their life to Jesus Christ. They attributed this change as the main factor in their ability to become drug free and live responsible lives.

	Dale Evans introduced Paul Richey, an evangelist and author. Richey told the audience different aspects of his life that led to alcohol abuse. Taking his first drink at the age of 14, he began a downward spiral in his life-style, relationship with his family members and his own self-esteem. Alcohol as a substitute for friends, family, as a comfort, and addiction was discussed. Viewers were told they must make a decision to turn away from their dependence and how to seek proper help.

	Host, Carlton Pearsn, introduced Tony Hall, a former Dallas Cowboy and Mr & Mrs Jim Kilroy. Tony explained his life experinces experimenting with drugs and relayed the importance of good influences from friends and family that helped him want to get off drugs. He encouraged viewers to remain faithful to their faith and retain good morals. Mr and Mrs Kilroy, parents of a son that was murdered in an occultic ritual, now have authored a book named "Sacrifice". They are now involved in an anti-drug program. Their son was one of many victims of ritual murder discovered buried on a ranch belonging to drug smugglers. The smugglers killed sacrificially to their "gods" thinking it would bring protection from authorities. Viewers were cautioned about using drugs for recreational purposes and to realize there really is a "drug war" going on. Mr and Mrs Kilroy explained to viewers the type of drug rehabilitation it takes for someone to get off drugs and stay off. Speaking about the many letters they received after their son was killed, Mr & Mrs Kilroy said the occult and drugs are often connected and are present in every town in America.

	Attorney Harold Ray presents a program focusing on "Drugs In The Community". He discusses the problem with two guests: Dr. Mack King Garter, Pastor of Mount Olive Baptist Church, Ft Lauderdale; Judge Larry Baraka, a taped interview. Dr. Carter, pastor of a 5,000 member black Baptist Church, literally mobilized his community and in so doing received national attention as a result of seeing what drugs were doing to the community of Ft Lauderdale. At a town meeting he organized at his church, legislators, drug enforcement administrators, U.S. Customs Officials, Coast Guard Representatives, U.S. Attorneys, Federal Judges, Police Chiefs, County Commissioners and Mayors. As a result, an impact has been made in curbing drug abuse. Judge Baraka suggests alternatives to consider instead of prison.

	Attorney, Harold Calvin Ray, interviewed guests, Bob Bashaw, a former alcoholic and now instructor at Faith Farm , Dr. Chuck Larkin, a Christian psychologist and John Glenn, Director of Ministry Training at Faith Farm . Discussion centered around what the meaning of the term "dysfunction" meant in light of today's problems, including drug and alcohol abuse. The underlying cause of substance abuse is anger, fear and emotional pain. These factors cause a dysfunctional personality and the individual may appear "happy" on the surface but in reality is on the brink of emotional disaster. Help should come in the form of helping the individual understand the underlying causes of the problem. Facing the problem and taking steps toward emotional health is important to the person trying to get off drugs and/or alcohol.
